LIGHTLESS NIGHTS NOT ORDERED HERE YET.

Mr. James H. Thompson, Fuel Administrator for Bourbon county has not yet received orders from the State or National Fuel Administration regarding the further observance of "lightless nights." Dispatches from Washington state that orders would be received from Washington, and that they would take effect on Wednesday night.

Mr. Thompson stated that the delay in transmission of the order was probably due to the fact that all such communications from Washington come through the State Fuel Administration, and were sent to the county officials from Louisville. Paris business houses will likely observe the order anyway, as they have on previous occasions.

ADVERTISING IN THE NEWS PROMOTES QUICK SALES.

That it pays to advertise has again been amply attested by the recent advertisement of a big lot of carpet sweepers which were advertised in the last issue of THE NEWS by The J. T. Hinton Co.

The sweepers were made a special sale for yesterday at a special price of 98 cents. As soon as the Hinton store was opened, or as soon as the sale began, at nine o'clock, there was a rush for the sweepers, and at five minutes after nine, the last one had been sold.

Thus it pays to advertise, and as the sale was advertised in THE NEWS there was bound to be a substantial result, for "Nearly Everybody in Bourbon County Reads THE NEWS."

YES, BUT WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

Hon. Press Kimball, of Lexington, who a few weeks ago announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress against United States Senator Ollie James, is now out in a card asking his friends to vote for Senator James.

This is the first time in Kentucky where a politician has been known to gamble, figuratively speaking and writing on the life of a friend. This might have happened in Germany, but it is certainly a new stunt in Kentucky. Senator James is said to be a very sick man, but it is to be hoped that he will beat his pallbearers to the cemetery.

LOCAL RAILROAD MEN TO SHARE IN NEW WAGES.

Employees in the local shops of the Louisville & Nashville railroad will share in the increased wages made possible by the recent order of Director-General McAdoo, which grants an increase to sixty-eight cents an hour with proportionate advances for assistant and miscellaneous classes in the mechanical departments.

The new rates, which are retroactive to last January 1, are from five to thirteen cents higher than wages paid these men in most shops under the central wage advance allowed by Director-General McAdoo about two months ago. Beginning August 1, eight hours will be regarded as a standard day's work and overtime will be paid at the rate of one and one-half times the usual rate. That pay will be given to the employees as soon as it can be calculated.

The local shop men are more than pleased with the new arrangement, especially with the eight hour feature, and more especially with the increase in their pay, which will cut a figure in the monthly pay check.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

The following was handed to THE NEWS a few days ago by a Paris woman, who thinks it would be a good motto for the Young Women's Christian Association to adopt:

Be kind to all you chance to meet in lane or crowded street, For anger and pride are both unwise and Vinegar never catches flies."
